06-30173-01 USA v LABARON SCHARD WARDLAW PAGE 2

Possessing Firearms after being Convicted of a Felony Offense, Possessing Firearms during the Commission of the aforementioned Drug Trafficking Offenses].

Defendant was surveilled for a six month period during which time he allegedly participated in several drug sales to a CI (10.4 grams of cocaine on 10/25/05; 1 oz of crack cocaine in early March, 2006; and a third sale of crack cocaine on March 16, 2006).

A search warrant for 618 Center Street (defendant's alleged residence) was executed on 3/24/06 and Wardlaw present agents recovered 7 ½ oz of crack cocaine, 45 thimbles of heroin, quantities of ammo, and Intertec 9 mm handgun, a Saiga 410 shotgun, a Rossi .38 caliber handgun with an obliterated serial number, an electronic scale covered with (field tested) cocaine base, a telephone bill addressed to this defendant at the 618 Center Street, plastic baggies, and documents bearing defendant Wardlaw's name, among other things. Defendant admitted that he was a renting resident of the house.

The illegal drugs were found secreted away in the drop ceiling of the house and in the garage. Guns were also found and hidden in the drop ceiling.

Defendant is marginally employed, (he takes care of his mother and brother). His probation was discontinued on 10/14/05 and the controlled buys alleged in this case began one week later on 10/21/05. Defendant has a long history of violence and now faces serious charges again (potentially a 15 year mandatory minimum). He poses a risk of flight and is a danger to the community. Nothing short of detention will protect society or assure his appearance at trial.
